MORNINGS

Bible Teaching

Malcolm Duncan will be opening the Bible each morning to explore the book of James and help us to apply its teaching to our situations.

Only the Brave Theme session

A dynamic session unpacking determined discipleship and its implications for our lives, with teaching, testimony and excellent guest interviews, exploring our 'Only the Brave' theme book material.

Encounter the Theme

An interactive session to get to grips with what determined discipleship looks like for us and how it impacts our communities. Exploring our theme book material together in an informal environment.

Parenting isn't for cowards

Raising children is not for the faint hearted! Someone once said 'the problem with parenting is just about the time you get the hang of it you're redundant...' These sessions, run by Care for the Family will be practical, humorous and down to earth giving you a chance to get ahead of the game

AFTERNOONS

Afternoons at Spring Harvest bring a packed schedule of practical streams and stand-alone sessions exploring a range of topics and tackling various discipleship issues.

CHURCH LEADERS

If you lead a church as a vicar, curate, pastor, elder or something similar, bring your coffee from 3.45pm each afternoon and spend some time networking with other church leaders before a special guest shares some key leadership lessons followed by an opportunity for Q&A.
